

RIKEN Europe Office

Anniversary Symposium

Shaping future society with cutting-edge Science, Technology and Innovation

The year 2019 marks 1 year since RIKEN established the Europe Office and 10 years since the signing of the Japan-EU Science and Technology cooperation agreement.

Join us to celebrate these milestones, hear what we have accomplished in that time, and discuss the future of Science, Technology and Innovation between Japan and the EU.

The symposium will feature items on:

- Sustainability of resources
- Health
- Quantum technologies
- RIKEN's successful international partnerships
- A panel discussion on the role of Science, Technology and Innovation in shaping future society.
